

BLAINE BARTLETT

Executive Coach

---

Blaine Bartlett is an internationally respected and sought after executive coach, management consultant, and organizational/leadership development expert. Blaine is President and CEO of Avatar Resources, Inc., a consulting firm he founded in 1987. The firm has affiliate offices in four countries. He has served clients in Europe, Asia, Australia, Africa, and the United States. While living in Japan in the early 1980's, he managed the business and international consulting division of one of the largest and most successful human resource development and consulting organizations in Asia. Blaine is also an Adjunct Professor at China's Beijing University and is on the teaching faculty of the American Association for Physician Leadership.

Blaine is considered a major innovative voice in the areas of executive coaching, leadership development, organizational development, and change management. He has been a guest lecturer on Enterprise Leadership Development at China's prestigious Tsing Hua University, a featured speaker at numerous World Congresses of the Junior Chamber International, a featured speaker at the World Congress of Human Resource Management, and was a core panel member of the World Consortium for Research and Development of Training. Blaine currently sits on the Board of Directors of the World Business Academy and the Los Angeles-based Unstoppable Foundation. He is also on the Advisory Boards of the Tokyo based All Nippon Management Coaching Association and the Asia Coaching and Mentoring Association based in Beijing, and is a managing director of the Philadelphia-based Global Coaching Alliance.

Blaine is certified as an executive, organizational and master somatic coach and was instrumental in the founding of the coaching industry in Japan and China. He is Dean of Education at the World Business Academy, a founding member of the Business Alliance for the Future the founder of the Institute for Compassionate Capitalism, and is also a member of the Transformational Leadership Council – an international group of thought leaders, CEOs, authors, film producers, and educators.

MEDI LEADERSHIP

He is the author of the #1 international bestseller Compassionate Capitalism: A Journey to the Soul of Business. His first book, Discover Your Inner Strength, was written in collaboration with authors Stephen Covey, Ken Blanchard and Brian Tracy and was published in April 2010. His second book, Three Dimensional Coaching: Passion into Performance, was released in 2013, was published in China in 2015 and was syndicated in Japan in 2016.

During the past three plus decades, Blaine has consulted worldwide with executives, companies, and governments and has delivered training programs to approximately 300,000 individuals and his work has impacted close to one million individuals worldwide. In 2012, he was formally invested as a Knight of the Sovereign Order of St. John of Jerusalem Knights of Malta, the world's oldest humanitarian organization.

The list of the clients with whom he's recently worked spans diverse market sectors and includes some of the largest organizations in Europe, Asia, and the United States. These include: American Association for Physician Leadership, Texas Health Resources, Memorial Health Care, IDEO, AT&T Wireless, PricewaterhouseCoopers, Starbucks, Gap, Wells Fargo, Microsoft, Swedish Neurological Institute, United Systems Integrators (a Johnson Controls company), Nokia, T-Mobile, Svenska Cellulosa Aktiebolaget (Sweden), Huhtamaki (Finland), Japan Creative Education Institute, Fazer Group (Finland), Petroleos de Venezuela, the World Bank, 20th Century Fox, and the Government of Zambia.

As an executive coach he has worked one-on-one with numerous "C-suite" and operating executives throughout the world to assist them in being more effective in growing both themselves and their organizations. Blaine's coaching, leadership and management programs and processes are considered among the most effective to be found anywhere in the world. They are known for their remarkable effectiveness, solid practicality, and immediate applicability to the needs and objectives of his clients. A superb communicator and one of the finest resources in the field, Blaine's insight and understanding are well recognized as being part of his ability to produce a solid, positive impact within his client's organizations. He has been the subject of extensive interviews on the future of organizations published in the award winning Finnish business magazines Suomen Kuvalehti and Talouselämä and has been the subject of articles in the Japanese business journal Chi Chi, the Chinese language Business Week Asia, and the internal Hewlett-Packard magazine HP Maailma.