

LYNN TOROSSIAN, FACHE

Executive Coach

Lynn is a transformational healthcare leader with over 30 years of experience leading high performing teams and building successful organizations. She served as the CEO of multiple hospitals, in three different healthcare systems, as well as a system level finance executive. She is known as a successful change leader, speaking nationally on the subject as an American College of Healthcare Executives faculty member, and published internationally.

Lynn is also a catalyst for change for her clients. She serves healthcare leaders as a trusted, experienced advisor, helping them improve their performance personally and organizationally. Lynn is a certified public accountant (CPA) and earned her Bachelor degree in Accounting from Eastern Michigan University. She is board certified as a Fellow in the American College of Healthcare Executives and is a graduate of the Advisory Board Leadership Fellowship program. She trained and was certified in coaching by The Hudson Institute of Coaching in Santa Barbara, California, and is an Associate Certified Coach (ACC) with the International Coach Federation. Lynn is also a certified yoga instructor.

Lynn's family includes her husband of 34 years, Tom, and their adult children, Mike and Lauren. Lynn and Tom love to spend time together either playing with their dog, Myla, or on the water. Together, they enjoy freshwater fishing in Michigan and saltwater beach time in Florida.
